Gifford Pinchot III

Bainbridge Graduate Institute

“Happiness, Business & the Environment”

Gifford Pinchot is a well-known author, speaker and consultant on innovation management. He is the president and co-founder of the Bainbridge Graduate Institute, which offers an MBA that integrates sustainability and social responsibility with innovation and profit. He also leads Pinchot & Company, a firm that helps to launch new businesses and implement more sustainable business practices. His best-selling book INTRAPRENEURING defined the ground rules for an emerging field of enterprise: the courageous pursuit of new ideas in established organizations.
